This week at Paulet

I must start by apologising for the unfortunate typing error in last week's Paulet Post. The notice should've read 'an exciting art day workshop'; I blame the proofreader (me)!

Thank you to all parents and students who attended the Year 9 Parents' Evening yesterday evening. Lots of very valuable conversations as always in readiness for the options evening next week and then student choices!

Spring into a book this March

There are always activities going on at Paulet to promote reading especially in March – the World Book Day month! Still to come is a non-uniform day, next Friday 21st, to raise funds to buy some new books for our extended library and on Friday 4th April the official opening of the Library with a year 7 sleepover!

Warhammer is an amazing hobby, so if you are free on a Friday afterschool, come and check out The Paulet Warhammer Club – open to all!

As previously announced, are thrilled to announce that Paulet High School will be celebrating its 50th Birthday on Wednesday 16th July 2025! 🇬🇧 To mark this special milestone, we're hosting a Birthday Party Open Day and would love for you and your family to join us in the celebrations!

Date: Wednesday 16th July 2025

Time: 15:00 - 18:00

Location: Paulet High School, Violet Way, DE15 9RT

What to Expect: Relive the memories, share stories, and take a walk down memory lane as we celebrate 50 years of Paulet High School. Current students, staff, and former alumni will all be part of the celebration, and it's a great opportunity to reconnect and reminisce about the wonderful moments we've shared over the years.

We'd also appreciate your help in spreading the word! Please feel free to invite others to the event, and share this email along with the attached poster with anyone you think would love to attend. The more, the merrier!

You can RSVP and find more details on our Facebook Event:
