News and messages from Mr McArthur

Good afternoon everyone and happy Friday!

I'm adding a new section this week – Thunks!

What is a Thunk and does it link to our teaching of Ethics? In ethics and philosophy, a Thunk is a beguiling, open-ended question designed to stop you in your tracks and encourage deep thinking about everyday life. Thunks link closely to ethical thinking, because they invite reflection on consequences, intentions, and the impact of our choices. They're also a great tool for family discussions and debates, as they encourage everyone to share ideas, challenge assumptions, and explore different perspectives together. By thinking through Thunks, families can practice reflection, reasoning, and intentional decision-making in a fun and engaging way. Have a look at this week's Thunk and have a family conversation of the opportunity arises.

New lunchtime club alert – three Year 10 students, Lily-Mae, Leah and Imogen, have set up a new lunchtime club which will run Tuesday lunchtimes in ML3 (thank you to Mrs Wilford for supervising). It is a Crochet Club and open to all so encourage your child to pop along if they are interested.

That's all for this week,

have a great weekend,

Ian McArthur - Headteacher.
