News and messages from Mr McArthur

Happy Friday everyone!

I for one have been pleased to see the sun this week after long months of grey skies. Everything always seems better when the sun is out. We fully opened the field at lunchtime this week and hundreds of our students have been enjoying lunchtime outside, playing football or just sitting and chatting.

This week some Year 7 students suffered an unfortunate incident as they dropped their ice-creams on the floor! Students have been working hard in class to produce Claes Oldenburg inspired giant art - thank goodness they weren't real!

Not much more to report on this week so have a great weekend everyone,

Ian McArthur - Headteacher

‘Thunk’ of the week:

If everything is already known, are we truly free to choose?

EVERYONE INCLUDED

We have been reminding students of the importance of punctuality. We open our gates at 8am. The canteen is open for breakfast (free for all free school meal students) and the refectory is open too. The bell goes at 8.27am and we expect students to be in their form rooms at 8.30am.

From Monday 20th, students who arrive after this time - without a valid reason- will receive a same day lunch time detention and text home.

Thank you for your support with this. Please do email the attendance team at attendance@phs.jtmat.co.uk if you need some support. We do really appreciate your support with attendance and punctuality.
